TOWN TALK

captain of Lower Merion's swimming team a few year back, and she's now a member of the Drexel women's varsity swimming team.

Noticed the other day that Mrs. Carl Warfel's recent vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., had resulted in a most becoming coat of tan. She's the sewing instructor at the Singer Company in Ardmore. She said that William Arblaster, assistant manager, left Ardmore Monday for Shamokin, Pa., where he will manage the agency there.

Are we going to have another epidemic of smart-alec fliers who think it's funny to frighten people by flying so low that they nearly clip off the chimney tops? Lower Merion police station had a siege of calls Sunday from Narberth residents who reported an airplane skimming the rooftops of Borough homes.

Raymond Nordblom To Be Married

The marriage of Miss Anna Marie Doxie, daughter of Mr. Charles Doxie, of Philadelphia, to Raymond Alfred Nordblom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews Hjalmar Nordblom, of 308 Conway Ave., Narberth, will take place at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, in the Swedish Church, Philadelphia. The Rev. Raymond C. Hess, minister of the church, will perform the ceremony.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will have as her matron of honor and only attendant, Mrs. L. V. Sclafani, of Stamford, Conn.

Harold Edmond Nordblom, of Narberth, will serve as best man for his brother, and the ushers will be Robert Nordblom and Ruben Nordblom, also brothers of the bridegroom.

A reception for the wedding party and members of the families will follow the ceremony at the future home of the bride couple, 303 Conway Ave., Narberth. After the reception, Mr. Nordblom and his bride will leave on a wedding trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Nordblom will entertain at a supper Friday evening, before the rehearsal for the marriage of Miss Doxie and their son. Guests will include members of the bride party.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Lower Merion Senior High School, and is at present affiliated with Quaker City Motor Parts, Inc., as assistant manager of the branch store.

Narberth Juniors Hostess to County Group Thursday

Candles and bouquets of spring flowers decorated the Narberth Community club rooms at the annual dinner of the Montgomery County Junior club women last Thursday night.

Miss Janet Gemmel, retiring third vice-president of the county federation, who presided during most of the meeting, was presented with a silver bracelet on behalf of the county juniors.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Royer Greaves, of the Royer-Greaves School of the Blind. She described the work of the school and presented one of her young students, who played the piano and sang several selections.

Later in the evening, Miss Gemmel relinquished the gavel to the county's new third vice-president, Mrs. Sterling Chain, of the Narberth Junior Club, who from now on will be in charge of county junior affairs.

his way, not by a fuss-pot who jumps on beds to learn if the mattresses have springs and who gives half-dollars to maids to "get rid of them." That kind of hombre is hardly the sort to depend on for the best low-down on the selection of good food and good service.

The subject suggests a job as yet undone with respect to a compilation of good dining places in Montgomery, Bucks and Delaware, spots within an hour or less from this section. The Editor should encourage the printing of that kind of handy directory (particularly as he now has his own print-shop) to be distributed at cost to his readers.

This reporter can help some, as he has a few favorite hostilities which are easy to reach, and there are no doubt many subscribers who will be glad to report on what they have learned in their quest in these parts (a radius of 35 miles) for good food excellently served. If the idea has merit, let it be encouraged by immediate correspondence to the Editor.

GAS COOKING...

SATISFACTION!

When you get your modern, new gas range, you'll get cooking results without the old-time cooking cares. For instance, accurate oven temperature control assures exactly the right temperature for every cooking operation, and on many models a simple clock control permits you to cook a complete dinner automatically. New ranges have improved oven ventilation, too, which circulates heat evenly on every level. So, whether it's baking, roasting, broiling, or top-of-range cooking, a modern gas range means complete satisfaction with every meal!

Miss DiMarcello

Wed Saturday

In Ardmore

Miss Yolanda Marie DiMarcello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas DiMarcello, of 112 Walnut Ave., Ardmore, became the bride of Joseph William Tenaglio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tenaglio, of Berwyn, Saturday afternoon, in St. David's Church, Ardmore.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white moire taffeta gown fashioned with a high round neckline, short sleeves, fitted bodice and a full skirt ending in a short train. Her finger-tip tulle veil was held with a cluster of white flowers, and she carried a bouquet of white iris and sweetpeas. Mrs. Adam Giovannini, of Ardmore, served as matron of honor, and the bridesmaid was Miss Edith DiMarcello, cousin of the bride. Both wore powder blue gowns with full net skirts featuring bustles at the back. They wore feathered headpieces and carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Mrs. DiMarcello chose a navy blue crepe model with a tiny matching hat and a corsage of gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom wore a grey crepe gown with a flower trimmed hat and a corsage of red roses. Adam Giovannini was best man, and the ushers included Ureste DiMarcello, brother of the bride; Dominic Giangullo, of Ardmore; and Thomas Tenaglio, brother of the bridegroom.

A small reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip to New York, the couple will reside in Ardmore.

Lower Merion High Oarsmen Will Open Season May 17th

Lower Merion High oarsmen, with several weeks of practice completed, will open their season Saturday, May 17, competing in the Stotesbury Cup regatta on the Schuylkill.

The Lower Merion crew, first in the school's history, has been working out in the Bachelors Barge Club's eight-oared shells. W. Herbert Horner, former Lansdowne High coach, has been named supervisor of the sport.

The coaching is being handled by E. Garrett Gilmore, former national and Canadian sculling champion, who also won Olympic doubles honors, and Ed (Army) Armstrong, veteran coxswain.

Horner has been impressed by the large turnout of rowing-minded Acedes. "The response has been wonderful," he said. "We have had about 98 candidates out with a daily average of about 60 going on the water. The boys are rowing in eights, quads and singles."

Lending a helping hand as the Aces prepare for their inaugural race are two other members of the Bachelors Barge Club—Raymond A. Scott, a member of the Lower Merion crew, and Walter Hamilton, treasurer of Lower Merion Township.

Two tentative eights have been picked as a result of workouts this past week. A first crew has been stroked by Bob Andrews, a 150-pounder. Other members are Mike Cramer, 160; No. 6; Bruce Hooper, 158; No. 8; Fred Fritsch, 160; No. 8; Dean Dabis, 161; No. 4; Bill Albrecht, 160; No. 3; Lew Baldwin, 150; No. 2; Ed Roach, 170; bow, and Dick Hutchinson, coxswain.

Rowing in the second eight are: John Kemp, 150; stroke; Dick Ward, 162; No. 7; Ed Nushick, 168; No. 6; Steve Adams, 170; No. 5; Bob Albrecht, 163; No. 4; Bob Lew, 150; No. 3; Bob Muchenberger, 168; No. 2; and Bill Doughty, 150; bow. They are stroked by Dick Curtis.

Haverford High, L. Merion Enter Suburban Meet

Lower Merion and Haverford High track teams will travel to Norristown on Saturday for the annual Suburban Championships at the Eagles' Roosevelt Field.

A favored of the Class A title as a result of its Delaware County conquest Saturday is Chester High's well-balanced array. But Lower Merion handed the Clippers their only defeat in a dual meet this season and the Ardmore Aces, led by versatile Bob Hackman, definitely are a threat.

Gene Zeiner, L. M.'s District One high jump titlist, also is expected to be back in action after recovering from a broken wrist.

While L. M. and Chester are battling it out, however, Haverford is accorded an excellent chance of coming through. The Fords finished second to Chester in the Delco meet half-mile.

Dr. Charles Davis Dies; A Founder of P.A.A.
Dr. Charles S. Davis of Steelton, noted educator and principal founder of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association, died this week. He was 82.

Dr. Davis was one of a few pioneers who organized the PIAA in 1913 and took an active part in moulding it into one of the most outstanding interscholastic athletic governing bodies in the United States.
